September 15 - 29, 2012

Turkish Coast

Anthony has returned to Turkey time and again for the last forty years. Sailing in Turkey can be as active as you like; from swimming in the crystal clear turquoise waters, snorkeling and diving to relaxing on deck with a book, savoring the next delicious meal and spending time with your party. Photographers, historians, sailors, sun-worshippers and water babies, the young and old alike, will all find inspiration in this amazing adventure.

Its dramatic coastline of sharp ravines and plunging, cave-ridden cliffs contrasted with the many picturesque anchorages, turquoise seas and vibrant oasis towns set against the towering Taurus Mountains hold endless appeal. Not only an idyllic cruising region that now boasts many yachting facilities, it is also an inspiring cultural center with an absorbing past and plethora of Roman, Greek, and Lycian ruins right by the boat to be climbed and explored. The marvelous markets and bazaars overflow with intriguing Eastern goods as well as abundant produce from the fertile valleys. Here religious practices are relaxed and the prices are affordable, and best of all is the wonderful welcome of its hard-working, fun-loving, extroverted people.

Join Anthony on this adventure of a lifetime!

OCSC's Flotillas

If you haven't been on a flotilla before, here's how it works. OCSC reserves multiple boats for the location and holds a series of planning parties to explain the details and answer questions from anyone who is interested. Some members choose to reserve a whole boat with their friends and family; some hook up with other singles or couples to form their own boat; a third option is to reserve a cabin on a boat skippered by an OCSC Instructor.

Flotilla charters are ideal for first-time skippers since OCSC helps in cruise planning, introduces individuals to others interested in sharing a yacht, and sends an experienced 'group leader' along. The security in this type of 'buddy-boating' is a primary reason for flotilla-style chartering, but the ease of participation and 'instant parties' make a first charter that much more enjoyable.

"Hos geldiniz: Welcome, what can we do for you?"

Please call Anthony or Lisa at (800) 223-2984 for questions and to join.

2011 Planning Party Dates: Saturday July 9th and Saturday September 17th
